

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Have you ever cooked a good meal only to have some family members not show up when you expected them? Or have you ever thrown a dinner party and had people cancel out on you at the last minute? If so, you can easily relate to the king (who represents God) in this story. The line "many are called but few are chosen" refers to the guests who showed up without a wedding garment. If a person accepted an invitation, he or she should have shown up properly dressed. Scripture scholars suggest that this refers to people who believe in God and accept His invitation, but who fail to accompany that faith with good works. To put it simply, it's hypocritical to show up at God's house if our lives aren't characterized by loving behavior.

Joseph Moore, from SERVICE 1990

RIGHT TO LIFE

Government has no authority to take away an innocent person's life. Government exists, instead, to secure the rights of all the people. Some claim they don't know when life begins. So, if they are hunting and don't know whether it is a bear or a man hidden from view, may they shoot? If not, then how do they justify abortion when they are not sure what it destroys?

Father Frank Pavone

SUGGESTED PRAYER

That those who work to restore legal protection for the unborn may turn to God for strength to persevere, we pray.
